End of Life Advance Planning

A special session offered jointly by
Beth Chaim and Sinai Memorial Chapel

Virtual via Zoom Wednesday, December 10th, 7pm

Planning for the future can feel overwhelming, but it doesn't have to be. Join us for an informative and thoughtful session on Jewish end-of-life traditions and funeral planning. We'll be joined by Cara Walden, Advance Planning Counselor at Sinai Memorial Chapel, who will guide us through what advance planning entails, how it supports our loved ones, and the steps to take now to ensure peace of mind later.

Together we will discuss:

- Why plan in advance?
- What in our Jewish tradition encourages advance planning?
- Who is Sinai and what do we do?
- What are the core things to think about when making a plan?
- What are the steps to proceed?

For information about Sinai you can contact Cara Walden directly at (201)-724-4958 or cwalden@sinaichapel.org.

For pastoral questions pertaining to advance planning, email Rabbi Dave at rabbidave@bethchaim.com

Chanukah Celebration

Saturday, Dec. 13, 5 PM, BCC

RSVP coming soon

Whew!

Rabbi Dave

I'm writing to you from my living room couch, taking my first big exhale since July 1. Around the house, our boxes are mostly unpacked and we are feeling more settled into our new town, home, school, community, and our professional positions every day. At Beth Chaim, the High Holy Days are behind us and our Beit Midrash is off to a good start. And, for the next week, I'm taking a rest so I can return renewed. By the time you read this, my "staycation" will have since passed, but know this for sure: These first 100 days as your rabbi have been full, beautiful, and humbling.

First and always, my gratitude begins with the people of Beth Chaim. From my very first day, you welcomed my family and me with such kindness, enthusiasm, and warmth that you made it easy for us to feel at home. The welcome service on July 11 is a memory I will carry always. To everyone who planned, organized, and showed up with such heart, thank you. I am grateful for every greeting, every conversation, every friendly wave, and every note of encouragement.

I'm equally thankful for the many house meetings you hosted so we could sit together, share our stories, and dream forward. I remain eager for more of these conversations. My door, and my calendar, are open.

I have been blessed with remarkable partners as we co-create Beth Chaim's next chapter. Our president, Arie Cohen, has been a steady friend and a reflective thought partner. Rabbi Dan, our rabbi emeritus, has offered generous support and spirit as we build our friendship. Shelby Meyer Margolin, our Director of Education, is a creative engine for our learning life. In the office, Melanie Hirsch and Chloe Zheng brighten my day by their very presence. Their professionalism keeps our community moving. And our lay leaders — too many to name, all essential — are the heartbeat of this congregation. Your dedication sustains us.

The High Holy Days brought great joy and deep pride. Thank you to our Director of Spiritual Life, Larry Candeub, for wise partnership throughout the season, and to everyone who took a role large or small. I am especially appreciative of music director Rana Rines and Chazzanut; our prayers rose on the wings of your voices. In the wider world, we exhaled together as the 20 remaining living hostages were freed from captivity. We continue to pray for the return of the remains of those who perished and for a fragile ceasefire to hold. We then delighted and danced through Sukkot and Simchat Torah, tasting the sweetness of this new chapter together.

Learning is already binding us. The Beit Midrash is off and running, implementing the values-based Shalom Learning curriculum. Our adult education class, "A Life of Meaning," has begun with energy and honesty, and I am savoring the questions you bring. And there is so much ahead - Shabbatot of prayer and presence, shared meals, our Chanukah celebration, two additional adult learning courses, a spring full of b'nei mitzvah as we lift up our newest Jewish adults, and countless moments of community woven from everyday kindness and purpose.

For now, I'm catching my breath so I can return ready. Thank you for the trust you've given me in these first 100 days. Thank you for the way you love this synagogue and one another. I'm grateful to be your rabbi, excited for the road we're building, and eager for what comes next — step by step, hand in hand, with joy.

L'shalom,

Rabbi Dave

Spiritual Life – Transitioning

by Larry Candeub, Director Religious Affairs/Spiritual Life

Please feel free to contact me, Larry Candeub, Bccreligiousaffairs@gmail.com with ANY thoughts you have about this, or things you would like to see in the upcoming months ...it's all about serving our community.

Well friends, this is it. My last official Star article as your Director of Religious Affairs. For the past four years, it has been my pleasure to do everything in my power to ensure that your Beth Chaim experience was nothing short of exceptional!

I started during the dark days of Covid. Our Sanctuary was dark, and we connected via Zoom...which most had never heard of. Slowly but surely, things began to open. Our High Holy Days were in person, but seats had to be six feet apart. Our B'nei Mitzvah class was able to return, although masked and socially distant. Just a year prior, many held the ceremonies in their back yards.

From there, we moved into Rabbi transitioning. How would Rabbi Dan's last year feel with those in the Congregation? The angst of having a transitional rabbi for a year and then having to select a settled rabbi. Oy.... It has truly been an honor to have had the opportunity to work hand in hand with Rabbi Dan, Rabbi Cohen and Rabbi Dave as they held Beth Chaim in their hearts while they served, and continue to serve, our members.

The payoff has been so fulfilling to me personally. I now get to see many amazing people, who I get to call my friends, on any given Shabbat or holy day. I receive the best hugs and if I forget someone, or miss them, accidentally of course, I get called out by them. I've never had a relationship with a congregation like this in my life.

So, while skiing, hiking and travelling will be on my radar for as long as I am healthy, I will continue to hold Beth Chaim and all my friends with me as I wander. I will still be around and will gladly help out and ensure a smooth transition.

One last thought ... It's YOU that make Beth Chaim a home. When you show up, we are all better. Please help support our home by coming to a Shabbat service or holiday celebration. WE need to take the lead, and WE need to be present. Others won't make it happen; it's up to YOU!

Thank you for all of your love and support, I will forever be grateful!

Social Action | Tikkun Olam

If there is anxiety in a man's mind, let him quash and transform it into joy with encouragement." (Proverbs 12:25)

by Naomi Ehrlich, Director, Tikkun Olam

The holiday season is here, and Beth Chaim Congregation will once again be sponsoring families from Pacific Clinics and Shalom Bayit. Pacific Clinics in Concord provides support services to families with children who are recovering from challenges stemming from neglect and abuse. Shalom Bayit is an SF Bay Area organization, whose mission is to foster social change and community response necessary to eradicate domestic violence in the Jewish community.

This year we are sponsoring 6 families. The 7th grade religious school class will be shopping in early December for one of the families who is sponsored by BCC member Laura Raney and her family.

The SignUpGenius links are below with details on each family. You can sign up for any of the families (the board of director's family is for both Pacific Clinics and Shalom Bayit).

Greening Beth Chaim – Tikkun Olam Starts at Home!

Here are a few housekeeping tips for the next time you are at Beth Chaim for an event:

1. Use the right disposal bins. We will have new signs for extra guidance.
2. Minimize usage of disposable items. Think before you reach for that paper or plastic item. We now have green bowls for soup or ice cream, blue cups for beverages, and small metal kiddush cups, all of which can be washed by hand or even in the dishwasher for larger amounts.
3. For our larger events, please stack your disposable used plates and cups BEFORE throwing them in the trash. Stacked items occupy less space and we will save on waste overage costs.

We want to reduce our waste stream before it starts, which is more environmentally and economically sound than recycling. But we are not giving up on that either, so please be conscientious!

Dear Friends of the Food Bank,

This year, the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano celebrates 50 years of leading the fight to end hunger, in partnership with our community and in service of our neighbors facing hunger.

You are a vital partner of the Food Bank, and you have an opportunity to make a lasting impact in your community with a donation during the annual Holiday Dinner Drive.

The past few years have been challenging for many of us – and they have changed the face of hunger in our community. This year is no different, as we’ve recently seen government funds that help us fight hunger cut, canceled, and otherwise disrupted. And we’ve seen the safety net that helped many of our neighbors make ends meet without the Food Bank’s help torn away. With the government’s approval of the biggest cut to CalFresh/SNAP (formerly food stamps) in the history of the program, more of our neighbors will need to turn to the Food Bank for support.

We currently provide enough food for 2.7 million meals each month for seniors, children, working parents, and community members struggling with the high cost of living in our area. During the holidays, this need will certainly increase.

Your support during the Holiday Dinner Drive remains critical in providing community members with meals – but just as importantly, with breathing room. With your help putting food on the table, more of your neighbors will have the funds for essential medicines, car repairs, or childcare while they are at work.

Please consider making a generous gift. Your support means so much.

With gratitude,

Kim Castaneda
Vice President
Communications, Development and Advocacy
Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano

PS Your gift, as always, is tax deductible. Please check with your tax preparer for details.

Sukkot – from Building to Blessings

Beginning with so many helping hands building our big, beautiful Sukkah, through the many celebrations within, Beth Chaim members created a joyful space. Thanks to Brotherhood and Religious School for construction and Laura Wilson for helping the kids create whimsical and beautiful decorations.

If you like your trees and shrubs to look like they just came from a nursery, after they have been in your yard for years, we recommend hiring trained nurserymen. We do not butcher plants like too many untrained gardeners or take arbitrary cuts like arborists, we trim to make plants grow correctly.

Plants Unlimited, Inc. is owned by Beth Chaim member John Goldstein and is a division of a wholesale nursery that has been growing wholesale plants for 50+ years. We have won many landscape design, maintenance, and horticultural awards over the decades.

Many landscape professional firms hire us to repair their irrigation problems and ensure the work is completed correctly. One of our founders has been saving homes and businesses from contractors that recommend installing a sump pump inside your home or business, instead of fixing the issues outside and keeping water away from your structures.

Sisterhood

by Suzie Homer, Sisterhood President

Sisterhood has had a remarkably busy year. Sisterhood welcomed our new Rabbi with a catered barbecue dinner for the whole congregation. In addition, we did over nine different projects beginning in September with a Beit Midrash welcome breakfast for 100 people. Next was a Bingo party attended by the young families of Beth Chaim. The Mahjong Extravaganza was just that! 50 women from our synagogue plus others attended. The sisterhood retreat in the spring was a big success. We planted a pomegranate tree in the back patio area.

We baked hamantaschen for Purim, and baked challah for Passover gifts and prepared gift bags.

Our Hanukkah party and gift exchange will be the last event of the year. We have over 60 active members who take part in these events as well as our ongoing programs; ladies who lunch, the book group, and the Rosh Chodesh gathering.

My term as president will be over in December and I am excited to announce that Susan Volsky has stepped up and will become the next sisterhood president for 2026/2027.

Brotherhood

by Burt Feldstein

What We Do Together Matters

Brotherhood members, with the Religious School constructed our giant Sukkah on the Beth Chaim patio. It was used for several Sukkot celebrations, as well as the venue for the annual Brotherhood Beer Tasting. Here is Ray Wohlford welcoming all and promising next year will be even more fun!

Beth Chaim's amazing Sukkah was taken down last Sunday morning and is stored away until next year. It was a fantastic effort performed by a much smaller group than erected the Sukkah this year. Beth Chaim's Brotherhood extends a special thank you John Goldstein and two of his crew (Roberto and Manuel) who led this effort. And this could not have been completed anywhere near the time it took without Deborah Wechsler's assistance and her truck which saved all our backs. She also stored away our High Holy Day Prayer Books. Brotherhood also thanks Michael Karatov, Len Lester, Elliot Binder, and especially Paul Yamshon, who assisted and brought the coffee and donuts. And finally, thank you Religious School students for your help taking the palm fronds to the truck.

This was a total team effort.

Spotlight on new members: The Jacoby Family

by Debbie Roof, Director, Membership

In 2025 we have had 21 new member families join Beth Chaim, and 20 of those are since Rabbi Dave started on July 1! There are still many more in the process of checking us out and filling out the membership paperwork!

Please invite your friends and relatives to join us as our guests, for a taco dinner for the First Shabbat in November, on Friday, November 7. Each month the first Shabbat will feature a different theme for our community dinner. Our next Shabbat Ruach service is Friday, Nov. 14, with pizza and ice cream, always a favorite night with our young families.

Please welcome back the following members, who rejoined Beth Chaim, since the September/October issue of the Star:

Inna Landman

Here is some interesting information you may not know about new members David and Julie Jacoby, and their daughter Poppy:

Beth Chaim: Tell us how you first found out about Beth Chaim:

Julie: My parents were members of Beth Chaim when I was in college at Sonoma State. When I came home I would join them for services, and it was always an enjoyable experience. My parents supported the building financially when it was built. Years later they enjoyed seeing our daughter Poppy attend preschool at Tree of Life and are happy to see us join Beth Chaim. Poppy is now in third grade at Greenbook Elementary School.

Beth Chaim: Where did you both grow up?

Julie: We like to say that we are both Pleasant people. David grew up in Pleasanton and I grew up in Pleasant Hill. David's mom Carroll Jacoby still lives in the house he grew up in.

I went to College Park High School. Then I went to Sonoma State where I studied psychology and was on the tennis team. I got a master's degree in counseling at St. Mary's, and have worked as a counselor in Castro Valley for 20 years. I am now working at Proctor Elementary School and Palomares Elementary School in Castro Valley.

David went to Amador High School, then University of Colorado in Boulder. He studied Environmental Engineering, and works for an Environmental Engineering company, inspecting construction sites for storm water compliance.

Beth Chaim: Tell us about your religious backgrounds.

Julie: I had a Bat Mitzvah at B’Nai Tikvah in Walnut Creek. David had a Bar Mitzvah at Beth Torah in Fremont. Leading a Jewish life together is important to us.

Beth Chaim: How did you two meet?

Julie: I met David’s sister Julie Jacoby at Midrasha, and we became good friends. I was a bridesmaid in her wedding in Australia (she lives there) and David was a groomsman in the wedding. We had met a few times over the years. Then we sat together on the 16-hour plane flight, which gave us a lot of time to get to know each other. We really hit it off at his sister’s wedding. Later, at my wedding, David’s sister held up a sign saying she was giving me her former name and her email address!

Beth Chaim: What kind of hobbies/travel do you like to do as a family?

Julie: We like to play tennis and pickle ball together as a family. We also like to go on bike rides together. We like to travel to Australia often, to visit family there. We will be there in June for Poppy’s cousin’s Bat Mitzvah.

Beth Chaim: What do you enjoy best so far about Beth Chaim?

Julie: I enjoy being with our friends at Beth Chaim. We were already friends with several families who were members at Beth Chaim. It’s nice to be with our friends there, and to make new friends, too.

I love the services and the events that we have gone to at Beth Chaim. I love the strong sense of support of Israel. Rabbi Dave is wonderful – we really appreciate him. Poppy is enjoying the Beit Midrash. I have enjoyed volunteering there, building the Sukkah, and the consecration was really nice. Being at Beth Chaim brings back memories from Tree of Life. It’s also so nice to be able to have our parents join us at Beth Chaim.

Beth Chaim: What goals do you have for your family at Beth Chaim?

Julie: We love that David’s mother Carroll is now a member at Beth Chaim, and is enjoying Sisterhood, and going to services. I joined the Education committee and will be helping with membership. We are just really excited and feel that we lucked out with the temple. Everyone has been so friendly and welcoming to our whole family.

I asked Poppy what she loves about Beth Chaim, and she said “the activities at Sunday School, my friends, and the Rabbi is really nice.”

Chavurot at Beth Chaim Congregation

We have five active Chavurah groups, involving about 100 members! They are a fun way to make close friends among the membership at Beth Chaim and attend temple events together.

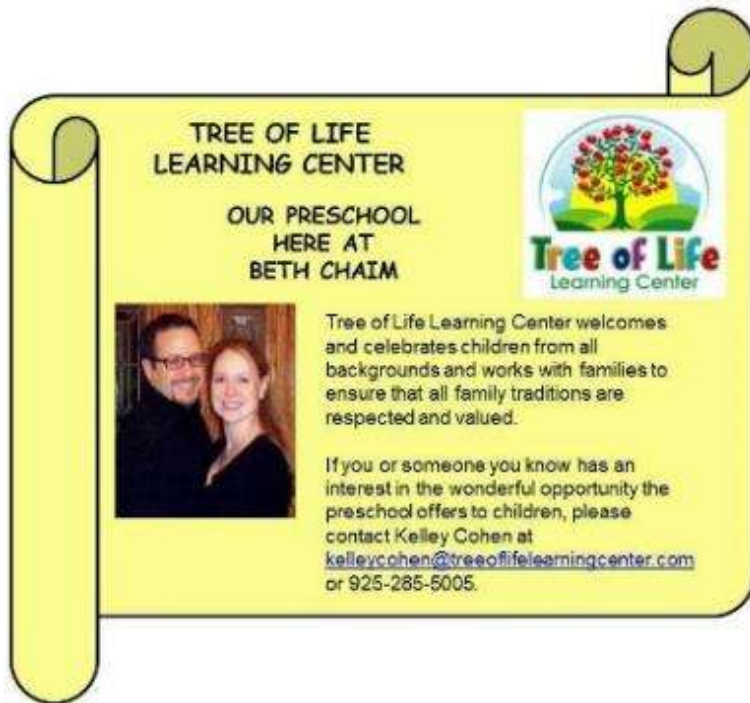

If you are looking to join a Chavurah group, please contact Debbie Roof at debbie.roof@yahoo.com

Shelby Margolin
Principal, Beit Midrash

What an incredible start we've had to the new school year! From the first day, our Beit Midrash has been filled with ruach (spirit), song, and community. The energy of our Rick Recht Summer Sing Out carried beautifully into our High Holy Day Family and Tot Services, creating a joyful and meaningful beginning to 5786.

We're also thrilled to share that seven new families have joined our Beit Midrash community—what a blessing to grow together!

Our first Family Day of the year was a beautiful example of community in action. Caring adults joined their students to build and decorate the sukkah and to engage in meaningful learning with Rabbi Dave about the themes of Yom Kippur. The experience reflected the heart of our Beit Midrash—learning, creativity, and Jewish life shared across generations.

Our Simchat Torah celebration was another highlight of the season! We danced, sang, and celebrated as we welcomed our newest learners into the Beit Midrash community. And of course, we witnessed the impossible: Rabbi Dave completing a five-minute “speed read” of the entire Torah—an unforgettable moment that filled the room with laughter and awe.

In-person Hebrew learning is back with a bang! Up to forty 3rd–7th graders now fill our sanctuary each week, enjoying pizza, Hebrew games, and joyful learning together. The gaga pit outside is getting plenty of enthusiastic use on those nights, too—it's wonderful to see our students connecting through play and community.

We're already looking ahead with excitement to our upcoming Chanukah Party on December 13 from 5–7 PM. Our Midrasha high school students will lead creative art and activity stations, there will be delicious latkes to enjoy, and our Beit Midrash students will help light the menorah with beautiful songs. There are many more surprises in store for that night, so keep your eyes peeled for updates. It's sure to be a night full of light, laughter, and connection—we can't wait to celebrate with all of you!

With gratitude,

Morah Shelby Meyer Margolin (she/her/hers)

Contra Costa Midrasha functions as Beth Chaim's teen program, and Beth Chaim makes an annual per student contribution to augment the tuition and retreat fees of Midrasha.

Grades 8-12

I want to share some Midrasha updates from September:

- Our 8th-grade class is HUGE and still growing! We are so delighted to have so many teens from all over the community. Overall, our enrollment is now on track to exceed last year's numbers. (The photo attached here features our 12th graders playing a get-to-know-you game with our 8th graders.)
- Better Together's NEW podcast held its first recording session with Sid Landman. I can't wait to share the podcast with you - hopefully no later than Thanksgiving!
- Our Hamsa Project (a combination of Hamsa Fund and Impact Builder) held a mini overnight in September where teens talked about which Jewish values are most important to them and looked at Maimonides' Ladder of Tzedakah, all to build a foundation for this year's work in philanthropy and service.
- CCM's Fall Festival and Friendraiser on October 25th invited current parents, alumni (parents and students), and community members to come meet each other! The evening featured Kosher dinner from Hummus Bodega, Dancing with Bruce Bierman, and Get to Know You Games run by our 12th graders.

Here's what we are excited about in the coming months:

- The launch of our Heritage Trips! In January we journey to Los Angeles with our Midrasha teens to the Museum of Tolerance, eat classic Jewish food on Pico/Robertson, engage in community service, learn from local Jewish artists, and celebrate Shabbat on the beach. A huge thanks to everyone who donated to "Devra's Vision Fund," as those gifts are helping to support this adventure.

Devra Aarons,
CCM Executive Director

Please spread the love about Contra Costa Midrasha! Registration for 2025-26 is now open at <https://paybee.io/@ccmidrasha@83>! Let the teens in your life know about Midrasha and our myriad of programs. Schedule a time to talk with our Director, Devra Aarons at devra.aarons@ccmidrasha.com or check out our website at ccmidrasha.com. There's something for every teen and enrollment is always open!
