

“Modeh Ani” The Gratitude Tree

The Modeh Ani Gratitude Tree (literally, “I give thanks”) is a beautiful piece of artwork that is mounted on the wall in the entry foyer, and is a perfect place to create a lasting tribute to a loved one or an event in your life. Leaves and stones placed on the tree can honor, remember, and perpetuate the memory of a Bar or Bat Mitzvah, wedding, or loved one who has died. Examples of the leaves and stone are below.

(Please note that although the image may seem to indicate otherwise, all of the leaves are the same size.)

Stone $3,600

Please complete a form for each leaf and stone you want to order and send to the Beth Chaim office.

For Leaves, your engraving is limited to 100 characters total. The amount of text that will fit on an engraved item can be determined by counting the number of characters in each sentence. Each letter, space, or punctuation mark counts as one (1) character. For example, the following sentence has a total of 24 characters:

In Honor of John Smith

Please be sure to proof your submission. The supplier will print what they receive and will not be held accountable for the cost of a reprint if they receive a mistake or spelling error.
